How do we promote “Patriotism Through Literacy”

Here are a few good ideas:

- Visit your library and see what patriotic books are available for children (check different age groups)
- Pick one or two and ask the library if you could have a reading set up with a group of children.
- Donate patriotic books to the library
- Become a literacy volunteer at your library to help children learn how to read.
- Hold a holiday patriotic read-a-thon.

There are many things that you can do to promote literacy for the youth of America. Attached or on reverse are a list of books in different age groups. There are so many more from which you can choose.

When you see any youth do a good deed or be kind to someone else, give them a R.A.P. card. (Random Acts of Kindness). You can get them on the website or contact me and I will send you a sheet of them.
