Important Volunteer Days in January

Start the year off by giving back to your community! January offers several meaningful opportunities to volunteer and serve others. Team up with an Organization and show support.

January 1 – New Year's Day

- Start the year with service projects such as community cleanups, food drives, or goal-setting volunteer events.

Third Monday in January – Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service

- A National Day of Service dedicated to honoring Dr. King's legacy through community action.
- Popular projects include food distribution, neighborhood cleanups, mentoring, and outreach.

January 17 – International Mentoring Day

- A perfect day to support youth mentoring, tutoring programs, and educational outreach.

January 25 – National Volunteer Blood Donor Day

- Encourage blood donations or host a blood drive to help replenish supplies after the holidays.

Ongoing January Volunteer Opportunities:

- Winter clothing and coat drives
- Food pantry and soup kitchen support
- Senior outreach and wellness checks
- Homeless cold-weather assistance

Get involved... Make a difference. Serve your community this January!

Auxiliary Outreach efforts don't require a lot of hours. Even one (1) hour of service makes a difference. Team up with another organization and make an impact.

Remember to wear something that represents your Auxiliary.
